MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Feb. 21, 2020

WHAT - 2020 SYMPHONY OF SOUNDS

Join the UAA Department of Music for its largest performance of the year. The Symphony of Sounds features an array of musical stylings, from classical and jazz to opera to musical theatre.

This year, the concert will also debut a new collaboration between UAA and the U.S. Army Alaska's 9th Army Band, led by conductor Alexander Davis. In addition to joining the UAA Department of Music in concert, the 9th Army Band members are attending rehearsals, coaching students in section rehearsals and joining some student recitals. This collaboration provides musicians and instruments to supplement the work of UAA students while offering a valuable experience for students looking to become professional musicians after graduation.
